SHORTS

WE ARE EVERYWHERE

The folks at the Ex-Lax company almost had heart attack a short time back. After getting a complaint they checked out one of their commercials wherein a woman was playing on the beach wearing a red-over-blue swimsuit with a yellow star in the center. As the complaintant had correctly noted, the sister's outfit was made from a Viet Cong flag--no shit!

FLOWER PEOPLE???

The Riverside Florists (2433 Riverside) just fired a female employee because the boss thought she looked "too much like a hippie, and would be better off down on 5th & Cedar." They sell plastic flowers too.

STUDENTS REFUSE TO SALUTE FLAG

Buffalo, N.Y. high school students by the hundreds refuse to pledge allegiance to the U.S. flag, according to Dr. Matt A. Gajewski, a school board member, and many recite their allegiance to the black liberation flag. He said that at one high school, which he refused to name, as many as 600 students refuse to stand up for the pledge of allegiance each day.

INDIANS TELL IT LIKE IT IS

A survey of Indians living on state reservations has revealed that "15% thought we should get out of Vietnam--while 85% thought we should get out of the United States," according to N.Y. Assemblyman Joseph Rielly, chairman of the subcommittee on Indian Affairs.

GODDAMN SOULS

During a recent interview a Gulf Oil Corporation official said that Gulf was "an outstanding success story." When he was asked about the Presbyterian Church's criticisms of Gulf's investment policies in Portugals African colonies, he answered, "They ought to tend to their own business and save a few goddamn souls."

CALIF. OFFICIAL QUITS

In a highly enexpected move, Marin County Administrator Alan Bruce resigned recently, saying that he thought Angela Davis should be freed on bail. Bruce, 48, remarked: "I must say I am happy to remove myself from an establishment of which the judicial branch has not yet found a way to release Angela Davis from jail. What more obvious step could there be to lay the groundwork for a fair trial, and incidentally permit some relaxation of onerous and costly security measures?"
Angela continues to be held under close security in jail pending hearings on her application for bail.

CHINA WIPES OUT V.D.

An English surgeon who recently returned from a 15 year stay in China reports that the country has apparantly eradicated venereal disease. "In my last 8 or 9 years in China," says Dr. Joshua Horn, "I did not see a single case of infectious syphilis." The Chinese have fought the disease by training para-professionals in its diagnosis and treatment and by providing work for former prostitutes.

On Sunday, May 23 New York's skies were the cleanest they've been in three years. The atmosphere got a "good" rating for the first time since the city began keeping air quality records. Good is the highest rating.

PARANOID???

In a recent speech to the Kentucky Bar Association Attorney General Mitchell, declaring that the nation is threatened more from within than without, advocated unrestricted electronic eavesdropping to protect the U.S. from subersives. He "announced" that a wiretap without a judge's approval did not violate the constitutional ban against "unreasonable searches," as many civil libertarians maintain.

ANTIWAR AUSSIES FIGHT POLICE

Hundreds of students in Canberra, Australia fought a sporadic ten hour battle with police who tried to stop an antiwar demonstration on May 21. Eight persons -- two demonstrators and six police -- were injured in the clashes. The arrests were made under a new Publec Order Bill, which many regard as aimed primarily at discouraging anti-government demonstrations. Australia has 10,000 troops in Vietnam.

SOUTH VIET STUDENTS CHARGED WITH TREASON

Twenty-one South Vietnamese students are on trial for treason in Saigon. The students all helped draft the People's Peace Treaty with North American visitors during the winter. If found guilty the 21 will be killed within 24 hours of the verdict. Immediately after news of the arrests leaked out, a small group of men and women began a hungar fast on the steps of the U.S. State Dept., pledging to stay until all 21 sisters and brothers are freed.

"COME TO THE EXECUTION"

Public executions have been resumed in Nigeria in an attempt to cut down on crime--and they've become quite popular. The other day, when four convicted armed robbers faced the firing squad, the sports stadium of Warri was overflowed with spectators. Officials estimate that the execution attracted over 27,000 people, and may have been one of the largest crowds in modern times to witness such an event.

BAD KARMA HITS KRISHNA FREAKS

On Market St., S.F., the Hare Krishnaites duked it out in a fist swinging melee with a bunch of Jesus freaks. The rumble was over a "turf" or sidewalk space dispute. The upshot of the whole thing was a rapid bust of all participants. At a trial a few weeks later the Krishnaites were convicted of disturbing the peace. They are prohibited from dancing, singing or chanting in public for six months.

WEST BANK URBAN RENEWAL

In the spring an investor's fancy turns toward money.

Redevelopment on the West Bank is threatening more and more of us as the "prime time" building period begins.

The University is evicting folks and planning to build "low cost housing" for automobiles in their place. Heller and Segal are hungrily awaiting taxpayers money to begin their own private profit taking and Fairview Hospital is threatening, harrassing and intimidating life long residents into selling their homes (an old Heller Segal practice) for more parking lots.

The people who live here are very disturbed by this-some folks are suggesting trading one new building for everyone that is torn down-but the feeling of most residents is "poor me, I'm so helpless and little and Keith Heller is so big and smart".

The point here is that this country is still a democracy on paper and that while it is we have a legal right to stop people from doing what we don't want. The Federal Govt is supervising redevelopment on the West Bank, and it provides a mechanism through which residents of a threatened community may have some access to the ears of the State. This mechanism is the Pro-Area Committee-the PAC- and it is supposed to give people who live here a chance to see plans and suggest changes.

P.A.C. means dealing with a bureaucracy and a bunch of greedy capitalists on their own ground, but it is only one of many things that we can do and one thing you can't get busted for. Besides, Heller and Segal didn't want a P.A.C., the Mpls Housing and Redevelopment didn't want a P.A.C. (according to Jack Crimmins of the H.R.A.), and neither did the fat guys who have money floating on this game. The Minneapolis Housing Authority and the City Planning Commission have gone out of their way to cripple a P.A.C. here by insisting that the very developers it is meant to regulate be members of it-in other words review their own plans. The H.R.A. has claimed that the West Bank really has no significant resident population. By this they mean few people have lived here all their lives. (The community which presently consists of 4000 plus is not considered legitimate). The H.R.A. does not mention, however, that developers here have tricked, threatened, scared, and harrassed many many people who had lived here all their lives into selling their homes. They also do not mention that these developers offered too little for property and don't always make the payments they promised.

The people met in the Cedar Village Theatre with Bill Schatzlein and Jack Crimmins of the H.R.A. two weeks ago Wed. and determined to elect a P.A.C. inspite of the duplicity. On Wednesday June 2, we met again and have agreed to hold nominations for delegates on Thursday June 10, at 7:30 in the Augsburg gym.

One week later, June 17, an election will be held from 7:00 AM - 8:00 PM in the Augsburg gym, and the community will be able to elect 14 people to represent this nonexistent community in its fight to exist.

BY THE RIVERSIDE

Ever since the University handed the New Riverside Cafe and Instrument Collective a notice to vacate their building to make room for a parking ramp, the Collective has been working actively with the 'U' for a relocation site.

Last Monday there was a closed meeting of the Riverside Collective, West Bank Campus Ministry, musicians, patrons and other concerned, active members of the community. The meeting was kept small so the issue might be dealt with most effectively and also to keep out certain profiteers and trouble makers.

They met to discuss what they ought to do about this problem. All of the people involved felt that there is a strong feeling against the parking ramp in the community. It was decided, however, that the question of the general future of the corner building in question (19th & Riverside) should be considered an issue separate from the issue of the future of the Cafe. This is necessary in order to make sure that the Cafe remains open.

The Riverside Collective and Campus Ministries and concerned community people met with the 'U' again on wednesday afternoon. They said that the general feeling of the meeting was affable and they seemed to be making progress. Meanwhile the Collective plans a mass meeting to discuss the future of the Cafe with the people in this community on Friday, June 11, 7:30 PM at the Cafe or the People's Center.

The Riverside Collective and most of the citizens of West Bank, feel that the present plans for redevelopment are unacceptable. They are , presently very concerned about the Riverside corner.

So far the Riverside Cafe has cooperated with the 'U' and will cooperate as long as they are willing to listen to the Collective ideas about the relocation of the Cafe and Instrument Collective. The two main stipulations that the Collective has about their relocation are: their new location must be in the West Bank area and that the building must be in as good or better shape than the present building.

C.R. RIP OFF

Sunday night,the People's Center was ripped off for curtains, a stereo and typewriter, drugs and various other items the rippers of the people could pick up.

Stephanie, who works at the Center, had picked up two hitchikers that same night. The two men,convinced her to pick up their laundry which was stashed behind the Skelly gas station kitty-korner from the Center and to drop them off at their door.

The next day Stephanie found out that the Center had been ripped-off. At a meeting that evening the rip off of the Center was discussed. Stephanie started to think back on the evening and the hitch hikers. She remembered that the laundry bags had been peanut gunny sacks like the Center often got peanuts in and where the supposed laundry bag had been stashed.

She brought it up to the rest of the group. After discussing it , about 15 people formed a vigilante group to get back the stolen goods. Stephanie remembered the address where she had left the hitchhikers off at.

The group went to the apartment together. There was a man there who was not one of the hitch hikers,who insisted he knew nothing of the rip off and that he was only a crasher. The 15 people went through the apartment. They found everything that had been stolen,but for some drugs,and brought them back to the Center.

There were tw more irritating things about the rip off. 1(The Center has a 20 year old safe which the thieves banged on and yanked around with a crowbar. Although they didn't get into the safe the safe can no longer be used (How they expected to open a safe with anything less than explosives is puzzling) 2) The People's Enemies made a little supper of brown rice and totally ignoring the "Wash your own Dish" sign above the sink, did not wash theirs.

Many people after cleaning their grass throw away the seeds, stems, and twigs. It is recommended that you save these, as their are many recipes for these odds and ends. A tasty hot drink that resembles tea can be made very simply by tying up all the waste from your stash into a muslin ball or into a piece of cheesecloth. Use the quantity you have on hand, as the quantity will determine the strength and potency. Now, drop the cheesecloth containing the grass into a kettle of water, and bring the water to a boil. Allow the kettle to boil for a few minutes, and then remove it from the flame and let it steep for another five minutes with the grass still inside. After this, the drink is ready. Just add honey and lemon to taste.

If you decide not to grow marijuana and want to eat your seeds, there is an interesting recipe for "seed pancakes." It is prepared by lightly toasting a quarter of a cup of seeds into a large frying pan. Now, take the seeds from the frying pan and add them to a mixture of one cup of pancake mix, one egg, a quarter cup of milk, and one tablespoon of butter. Beat the mixture till smooth and creamy. Heat a frying pan with a small amount of butter, then pour in pancake batter. Turn the pancakes when the edges begin to turn brown.

NIXON SAYS "PEACE SEED" IS GROWING

"None of this is cause for auphoria. The harvest time of peace is not yet. What we can say, though, is that the seeds of peace are planted, and that they are germinating in a way that seems to hold great promise. Certainly the chances for a full generation of peace in America and the world are stronger today than at any other period in your lifetime."

DRUG NOTES

PCP is Phencyclidine, an animal tranquilizer (brand name "Sernyl" -- Park Davis and Co.). In humans causes stomach cramps, coma, and coma-like states;often leading to death. In very low doses similar to being drunk and running a high fever, plus negative mind trips.

Last issue, Hundred Flowers reported that the orange sunshine that was going around was PCP. However, some new orange sunshine came in and it's pure acid and really heavy. You're best bet is to try and get your stuff from someone who really knows what it is, and if there's any doubt in your mind about what it is, either have it analyzed or don't buy it.

Well brothers and sisters, the time is here once more. Yup, elections are rolling around again and consequentially, the number of busts is increasing. (It's strange that crimes such as murder and rape increase each year, but the highest number of arrests are not for these crimes but rather for possession of illegal drugs.)

Remember also, this is the marijuana growing season, and that means that with the increased amount of dope, busts may be occurring more often. So, make sure you plant your crops in safe places, but also make sure to plant lots so you can share with all your friends. And don't let paranoia overtake you so much so that you start hurting your own brothers and sisters. The psychology of all of these busts is to make us suspiscious of one another. Let's not play into their hands and let's stay high, happy and healthy.

MINNEAPOLIS BUST

An article appeared in the Minneapolis Star, Tuesday, May 18, about a bust occurring on Ridgewood Ave. in Minneapolis. It mentioned that police discovered 300 young marijuana plants growing in a basement hothouse. Two books were also found called, "The Marijuana Consumers' and Dealers' Guide," and "Drug Manufacturing for Fun and Profit."

The next day, Hundred Flowers received a call from the people who had been busted at the house mentioned in the article. They were upset because the article told only a short portion of the true story (as is usually the case). They wanted a chance to tell people exactly what really happened at the bust. The following paragraphs tell their side of the story.

Three people were at the house on Tuesday. Two of them were down in the basement peacefully cultivating their marijuana garden. The other person, upstairs, was greeted by seven plainclothes cops who pushed a search warrant in the face of the friendly freak. (Two uniformed cops arrived later. That means that there were nine cops there to arrest three people and search one house.) The two men downstairs were rounded up and all three were "invited" to sit down while the cops proceeded to ransack the house. They tore all the beds apart, overturned and dumped out all the containers in the kitchen, and managed to destroy numerous other things. After this, the cops started making remarks about the fact that the suspects were on welfare and also managed to throw in insults (common to those often made by men of similar intellect) about the "young people" of today.

The three suspects were taken to jail. One brother, who was a juvenile, was released. The other two were kept in jail for a day before they were allowed to see a lawyer. They were fingerprinted and released after two days.

The cops took $80 in cash, billfolds, letters, pictures, notebooks, and the two books on planting, as well as the 300 marijuana plants. The money and wallets were returned to their owners.

"...HAD TO CRY TODAY"

W. BANK STREET PEOPLE

This spring the street people along Cedar Avenue have seen the street community change from one were a strength is felt between the people, and people work to protect one another and are generally happy with each other, to now where many people have left or are leaving the Avenue because of incredibly heavy hassles and bummers created by a few individuals. People who have shown themselves to be a combination of all the things that destroy a community...people who are causing life on the street to degenerate to a level where they can take advantage of it and control it.

More and more the street has come to mean getting burnt for bad dope, hassled, maybe raped, knifed, or even shot. Within the last two months life on the street has changed that much. But then it does every Spring, its the old syndrome. Groovy Spring...long hot summer.

But overall we're experiencing the same syndrome that escorted Haight-Ashbury, the Lower East Side, and other communities (where people used to depend on each other's generosity to survive) into rampant rip-offs, violence, and smack,speed, or bad chemicals.

People have been coming to the Bank for years now because the residents here have been creating the kind of living and working alternatives that make life in an insane urban environment more human, more bearable. Some people have come from far away in search of that. Others have traveled far-away in search of the same thing. They leave when their environment ceases to be human. People are now leaving Cedar Avenue.

Of course there are always those stable few who manage to find some sanity in it all. That is why there is a group of people across the street in the park playing bongos, bottles and sticks even as this is being typed. They are good to hear.

There is a myth about the West BAnk community But there is also the discovery that although the myth doesn't exist, something better does -- the reality. But that is now being threatened by something other than urban renewal or the Man. There are those people who are coming to the Bank and bringing with them the insanity that we seek to discard. The longer they stay (or the longer they stay without changing) the more they threaten us.

Old people in the neighborhood are afraid to walk around. They don't just sense what is happening, they see it or hear it (as in the case of a shotgun blast).

Following is a list of some of the incidents that have happened lately. There have been countless other hassles almost every day.

°°There was a fist fight between two ex-bikers, a personal thing that'd been going on before. They duked it out and the whole thing was pretty bloody. One guy had brass knuckles.

°°Someone who had been either ripped off for dope, or been sold bad stuff knifed up the dealer pretty bad. The guy who got cut was wounded in the neck and had to have stitches.

°°Someone gave a girl liquid paint base and told her it was wine or some psychedelic. She drank it and soon after went into convulsions and couldn't get oxygen. An ambulance had to be called to save her life.

°°On Memorial Day someone who was heavily tripping kicked in the door of Richter's.

°°Also on Memorial Day someone else thought it would be neat to shoot off his shotgun. His "joke" gave another guy powder burns in his hair, as the gun went off pointed just above his head.

°°An uninvolved bystander was shot when someone fired three shots at someone else who had run off with money before coming through on a deal. The person who was shot had been standing about half a block away. He was hit in the kneecap and will need and operation.

The local Vets have been discussing doing a People's Patrol with Vets and other volunteers on the streets to do some real"serving and protecting".

This summer a few people have earned the street community more bad karma quicker than most people can remember. Characters who take advantage of us, or try to move in and control part of our community must be recognized. People should stop thinking that life in the ghetto street is "beautiful" while people are dealing smack and others are getting hooked on it, while there are knifings, rapes, bad dope, and a few indiviiduals who like to be "heavy" and lay bum trips on us.

No one person should have to lay his or her self on the line without the outward, and if necessary, physical support of everyone concerned.

Nothing can come out of an article like this unless the people instigate the changes themselves. This was written especially for people who've been spending time on the street, to take a look at whats going round, and think about it. It's going to take the responsibility of everyone to keep people that will take advantage of us, and use us, out of the community.

ALL POWER TO THOSE PEOPLE THAT SHARE IT!

BE STRONG, BE BEAUTIFUL!

"The trouble is nothing completely new. Its thing, that have built up. YOu can see it change. You think at first when you see one or two bad things happen that they'll go away. Like last May, it was usually just one or two kids who were messed up who came to start trouble or rip someone off. At first it seems like such a small thing cause there are so many good things. But more and more trouble is happening. More kids doing speed, and more dealing, and more large amounts of money, a lot of bigger deals. And more kids talk about getting weapons and ripping off other kids. It's really sickening.

Some of those people are your enemy except they got long hair and wear grubby cloths.

It wouldn't hurt the West Bank to be a little more militant about defending itself."

--a street person

THE GREAT SPIRIT IS

On May 16, 1971, climaxing our Indian Week in Minnesota, an inter-tribal take-over of the abandoned Naval Air Base took place. Approximately 100 Indians from different tribes all across the country, including representatives from Alcatraz, Mount Crazy Horse Movement (Alias Mount Rushmore), several AIM chapters etc. converged upon the base in a legal and peaceful manner. The event started about 9:30 p.m. Sunday night. The Naval Air Base was deactivated June 10, 1970. According to the Sioux Treaty of 1868, all federal land not being used by the U.S. government is automatically returned to their original owners, the Indians.

Our main purpose of the takeover was to have the base converted into an ALL Indian School or Cultural Center. It could also help the Indian housing situation here in Minneapolis which is to say the least, deplorable and unfit for humans. The first sign that was posted read, "Who said Indians never attack at night"-many other signs were posted afterwards. We immediately set up tents, camping area and brought in the AIM drum. Singing and dancing then took place to celebrate the takeover. Two well known all Indian Rock groups were also on hand giving us full support; the Stone Savage from Chicago and Redbone from California. Everything was right on.

Base Commander John Gebhart was evicted from his office and after carefully checking I.D.s of two naval security guards, Clyde Bellecourt, Executive Director of AIM told them they were relieved of their duties and informed them that "You're on Indian land now."

We then met with Mayor Stenvig, who agreed with spokesman of AIM, Dennis Banks that there would be no Minneapolis police called in for our eviction. We held a conference with him until 4:30 a.m. He told us that this was a federal issue and our argument was with the federal government. We also asked Gebhart and Stenvig to set up a conference telephone call involving AIM representatives and Senators Humphrey and Mondale and Rep. Don Fraser. Stenvig contacted Fraser and he agreed to set up the conference call.

We held the base for 5 days and in those 5 days we received nationwide support. Fresh water was brought in, food, medical supplies, sleeping bags, blankets, gas burners, flashlights, money, etc. It was beautiful and everywhere you looked you saw Indian Brotherhood and unity, old and young alike. We had set up our own security guards at the gate and everyone worked in shifts. Due to rainfall on the first night, we moved into the base chapel and set up our kitchen, medical office and sleeping quarters. Being that there was no heat, electricity and lacking sanitary facilities, the Navy was kind enough to set up portable toilets outdoors. As one of our people put it, "just like any Indian Reservation". By the gentle and steady music of the drum and singers, we knew the medicine was getting stronger and the drums were getting louder. The Great Spirit was with us.

We were now awaiting a meeting with Sen. Mondale scheduled for 10:00 am. At the base on Friday, June 21. Humphrey and Fraser were to come later on in the week. Everything was running smooth, our security people were very careful as to whom they let pass in and out of the gate, no booze or dope of any kind allowed.

The beauty of it all ended abruptly at 5 a.m. Friday morning while most of our people were asleep. What happened was an unbelievable sight. About 150 officers which included U.S. Marshalls, Hennepin County Deputies, Naval Reservists and even the U.S. Marines arrived on the scene to evict us. These pigs were flown in from all over the U.S., ie. Florida, Chicago, Michigan, Philadelphia, Denver, LA, etc.. Now if the military had all that money to fly in these officers, whiy in the hell didn't they have the money to help us send some of our people to meet with Washington officials in D.C.?

Well, they came in swinging at random and we could do nothing but reciprocate. Two of our men were brutally beaten with riot sticks and kicked over and over again. The way these pigs searched our women was totally obscene. They openly molested and practically raped many of the younger women, and those who screamed or fought back were answered by a billy club to the head or various parts of the body. The pigs just kept on swinging wildly, so wildly that one guard swung and hit one of his own people. The "Indians' weapons" consisted of two kids' baseball bats which were to be used for a softball game which had previously been arranged between the remaining naval reservists and the "Skins". Our "Weapons" were written about in newspapers, on T.V. and radio, but what was not mentioned was the fact that these officers had riot sticks, bayonets, M-16s and snipers with scopes on their rifles on the roofs. With those odds --150 pigs with"war weapons" and 40 Indians with two baseball bats-well we didn't have a chance. The women were handcuffed and shoved into the paddy wagon, mothers who had hidden their children in the attic were not allowed to go back inside to get them. Later our attorneys received permission to pick up the children and our belongings. The Naval Reservists had informed us that they had "carefully packed" everything in cardboard boxes. Indeed they did-the men's dancing costumes were urinated on and bustles were broken and crammed into boxes. Clothing and other articles also were urinated on, ripped and torn. Costumes and all valuable possessions were ruined. A broken eagle feather is equal to a broken heart.

A costume can sometimes take years to complete. Many of the headresses, chokers, hairpipes, bustles etc. are given as gifts when attending Pow Wows across the country. When an eagle feather is given by another Negotiating for return of possessions after bust: Larry Leventhal (AIM atty), Ron Cheetah, Chuck Robertson and Donald Wallas.

Indian, it is the highest honor an Indian can receive. Obviously the wreckage of our possessions was done purposly and maliciously or maybe as military recreation.

The women were told they were under arrest but later on released. 16 of our men were arrested for trespassing, penalty 6 months and/or a $500 fine. Two of our men, Bruce Livingston,18, and Jerry Roy, 19, were charged with assaulting federal officers. The offense is a felony with a penalty of 10 years and/or $10,000 fine. U.S. Magistrate, Bernard G. Zimpfer set bail at $25,000 bond.

Captain Paul Merchent, executive officer at the Glenview Illinois Naval Air Station, arrived on Monday following the takeover Sunday night. When our people began bringing in additional supplies and someone brought in a gas powered electrical generator, and when we started our school and first aid classes, well Merchent and other authorities felt that we intended to stay permanently. Did they think this was just some sort of field trip? Merchent signed the complaint Thursday afternoon, charging the Indians with trespassing. Lt. Craig Bagemihl, acting public information officer for the station said Merchent talked by telephone with "ahigh justice department official" who said the base "must be cleared".

Sen. Mondale did arrive in Mpls. for our 10 a.m. meeting only to find the Indians had been evicted and that we were down at the Federal Building. We held a press conference and presented him our eight point proposal.

1. Explore ways to convert the Naval Air station into an educational and cultural facility for Indians.
2. Reorder federal priorities within the Office of Economic Opportunity, the Dept. of Housing and Urban Development, and the Health, Education and Welfare Dept. toward Indians.
3. Increase the budget of the Bureau of Indian Affairs to include health, dental, eye and educational allowances for urban and off-reservation Indians.
4. Urge Congress to reorder the BIA to include "All Indians".
5. Establish a National Indian Health Board to override policies of the Public Health Service. Also, establish units of the board to "deal with" Indian Public health hospitals.
6. Enact a bill proposed by Sen. Ed Kennedy for a national Indian Board of Education under jurisdiction of the BIA.
7. Establish a National Indian Housing Redevelopment Authority to coordinate expenditures within BIA,HEW HUD and the Dept. of Labor.
8. Establish the National Indian Trust Council proposed by Pres. Nixon. The Council would protect and enforce the treaty rights of Indians and have the power to review and investigate all government agencies and policies that are connected with Indians, according to the proposal.

Mondale took testimony from several of our people. Spokesman for AIM, Dennis Banks called the action by the guards, "one of the most inhumane things I"ve ever seen in my life". Mondale said the list of things we wanted done are "unarguable claims . We definately need a reording. Some of us in the Senate have tried without much success. I can only tell you we will continue to try". He also said that he recognized the Indians right to claim land abandoned by the U.S., but said the normal judicial ways must be followed.

On May 28, 1971, we met with Representative Don Fraser who appeared sympathetic with our situation. He immediately asked for a full investigation of the Naval authorities here as to the surprise attack on our people at 5 in the morning, knowing fully well that Mondale would be arriving to meet with us at 10 the same day. He, too said he would see what he could do and would meet with us again soon with a full report.

Meetings, Meetings, politics, politics, BULLSHIT! We are tired of hearing rhetoric about rhetoric. As of now the American Indian Movement has established a legal defense fund to employ or retain attorneys to enforce all rights and privileges as granted and provided under various treaties with the United States of America. We must challenge the validity of the "courts of justice".The U.S. Government has broken all 389 treaties with the Indian people. People who question the validity of these treaties seem to forget that the U.S. is still upholding the SEATO Treaty with the South Vietnamese puppet government: one of the most atrocious excuses for a "treaty" of all time. To quote from Sitting Bull: "If our people fight one tribe at a time, all will be killed. They can cut off our fingers one by one, but if we join together we will make a powerful fist."

Yes, the medicine is getting stronger and the drums are getting louder!!

The Navy has claimed in a number of newspapers that they do not want the Twin City Naval Air Station, and have offered to sell it to the city of Minneapolis to turn it into a zoo. The city didn't even want it.

It has all the facilities the Indians need: Dormatories, Medical facilities, classrooms, gymnasiums, auditorium and recreation facilities. Since the AIM takeover, military bases all over the country will not be "abandoned"-but will be used for "storage sites", "warehouses" or some such excuse. All contributions/donations would be greatly appreciated. Bring or mail to American Indian Movement, 1337 E.Franklin Ave. ,Mpls. 55404.

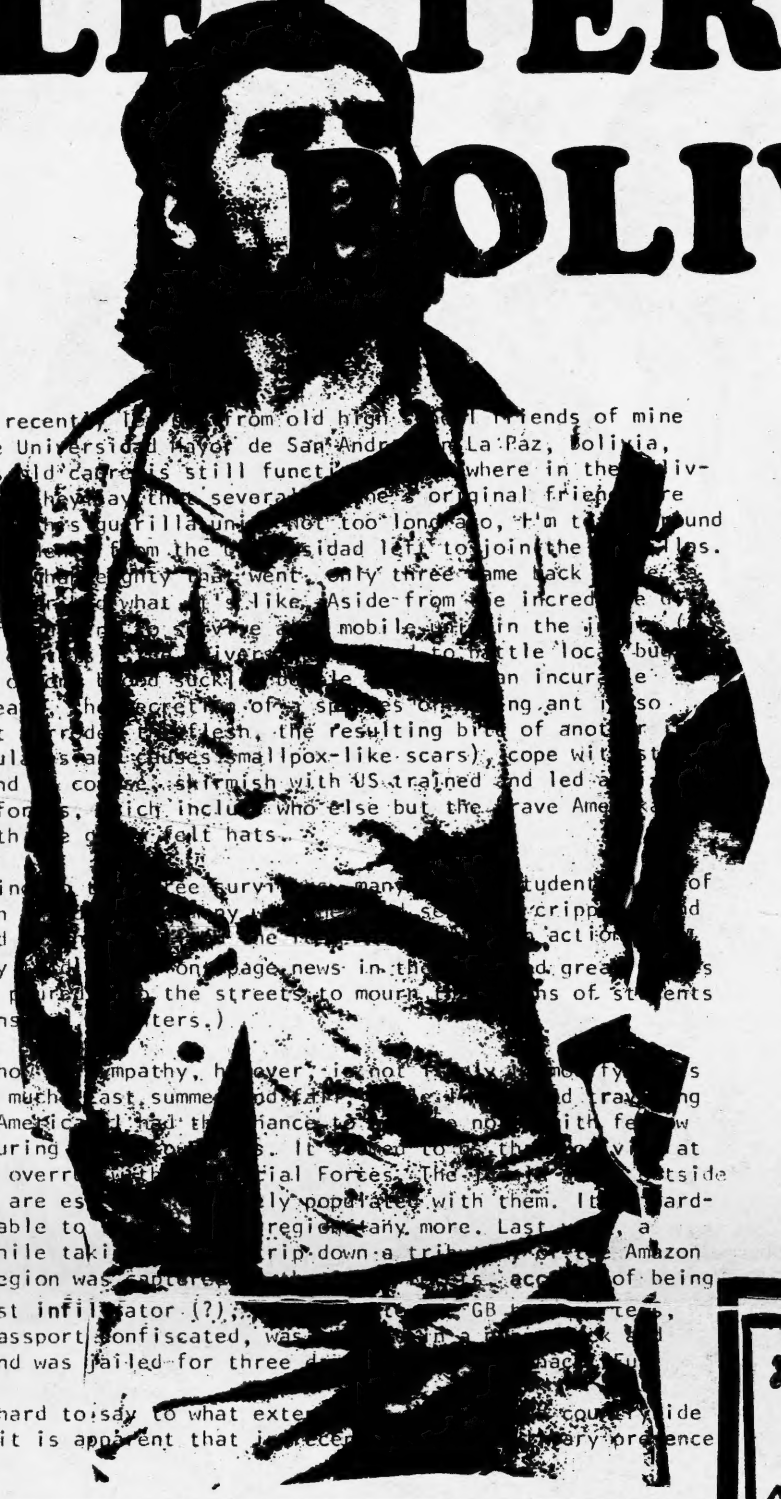
LETTER FROM BOLIVIA



HF:

I have recent[ly] l[ette]r from old high [school] friends of mine now at the Universidad Mayor de San And[rés] La Paz, Bolivia, that Che's old cadre is still funct[ioning] where in the Bolivian jungl[e]. They say that several [of] Che's original friends are yet leadi[ng] this guerilla uni[t]. Not too long ago, [the] t[roo]p found 80 or so [men] from the Universidad left to join the [rebels]. Of the mo[re] than eighty that went, only three came back [alive] and they c[ould] tell what it's like. Aside from the incred[ible] difficulty of [trying] to survive [in] mobile [units] in the j[ungle] (read Che [Guevara's] Diary) [and] to battle loc[als] bu[t] (the bite o[f] the blood sucki[ng] bugs [can] incur[a] brain disea[se]. The secretion of a species of [stinging] ant is so caustic it [can] erode [the] flesh, the resulting bite of another insect pustula[tes] and [causes] smallpox-like scars), cope with [mal]nutrition, and [the] constant skirmish with US trained and led [Bolivian] guerilla for[ces], which include who else but the brave Ame[rican] heroes with [the] green felt hats.

According [to] the few survi[vors] many [of the] student[s] suffered starvation [and] [be]ri-beri, [were] crippled and disfigured [by] the [ac]tion. The story they [told] front page news in the [U]S and great[ly] moved thousands of people [to] the streets to mourn [the] [de]aths of students (their sons [and] daughters.)

This sho[uld] sympathy, however, is not [effective] to [mod]ify US situation much. [Last] summe[r] and fall [I] had [the] [op]portunity in South Americ[a] [to] have [a] chance to [talk] with fellow freaks touring [the] countries. It [seems] to [me] that at least, is overr[un] with Special Forces. The [areas] outside of La Paz are es[pe]cially populated with them. It is hardly adviseable to [travel] [in] regions any more. Last [year], a friend, while taki[ng] a trip down a tri[butary] of the Amazon in this region was [captured] [by] [US] accomplices of being a communist infiltrator (?), [was] [turned] over to GB [authorities], had her passport confiscated, was [held] [in] a [cell] and beaten, and was jailed for three [days] [in] [a] [cell].

It is hard to say to what exte[nt] [the] countryside now, but it is apparent that i[n] recen[t] [years] military presence in Bolivia has become quite overt. While in La Paz, we all noticed GB's in uniform drilling similarly uniformed children of high school age in the streets. Again, it may be hard to tell what the truth is here, but kids I met in La Paz told me that military training under the Green Berets has recently become compulsory for all young boys. No one likes it much, although some claim it's the only way to get ahead since the GB's have the money and the power. Now I suppose that this is a partisan complaint, but I really don't like to see the US military fucking around in another country. They just might be laying the bureaucratic building blocks for a totalitarian state.

Why so much interest in Bolivia? It may have something to do with capitalist control of the price of tin. Bolivian tin miners get $300 a year. They work 12 hours a day and have a life expectancy of 35. Their wives and children spend the day picking over the slag heaps for stray bits of metal that they can sell. They are notorious leftists. Or it may be that to domino theory-headed US military advisers Bolivia is a key country. During the past decade Southeast Asia has dominated the news. However, it would be incredibly naive to believe that Vietnam is the only proving ground for US military policy. When Nixon said that Vietnam would be the last "war," what he meant was just that next time the Pentagon would be more sneaky. By witholding fair exchange for Bolivian natural resources and by infusing dollars through military sources, the US military-industrial complex can maintain effective control of the country. Considering the above, it is not surprising what opinion aware South Americans have of gringos. The Pentagon has never claimed to be a brotherly or humanitarian organization. Why then do we feed it so much money?

If you travel to South America, expect to come across an illness called CIA paranoia. One must keep one's mouth shut and learn to live with the monster, no?

PANTHERS FREED

BOBBY AND ERICKA

NEW HAVEN (LNS) -- Bobby Seale's and Ericka Huggins' trial had gone on for six months -- the longest trial in Connecticut history and the longest jury selection process in the country's history. On May 24, after six days of heated discussion, the jury announced that they couldn't reach a decision and the judge declared it a hung jury. On May 26 was a hearing to discuss the next step.

At the hearing the defense quizzed the jurors on their votes, and it turned out that they had voted 11-1 for acquittal -- which might as well have been 1-11 since it has to be unanimous. On Wednesday, May 19 they had voted to acquit Bobby. The next day they argued about Ericka--the shouting even seeped through closed doors. One woman wanted to convict her and then she changed her mind and voted to convict Bobby too.

Then the defense argued that there had been so much prejudicial publicity that the defendants couldn't get a fair trial so the judge should dismiss the charges. The jury was given improper instructions they pointed out. They also argued that it would be impossible to reselect a jury since so many panels of jurors (over 1,000 people) had been questioned for the last jury.

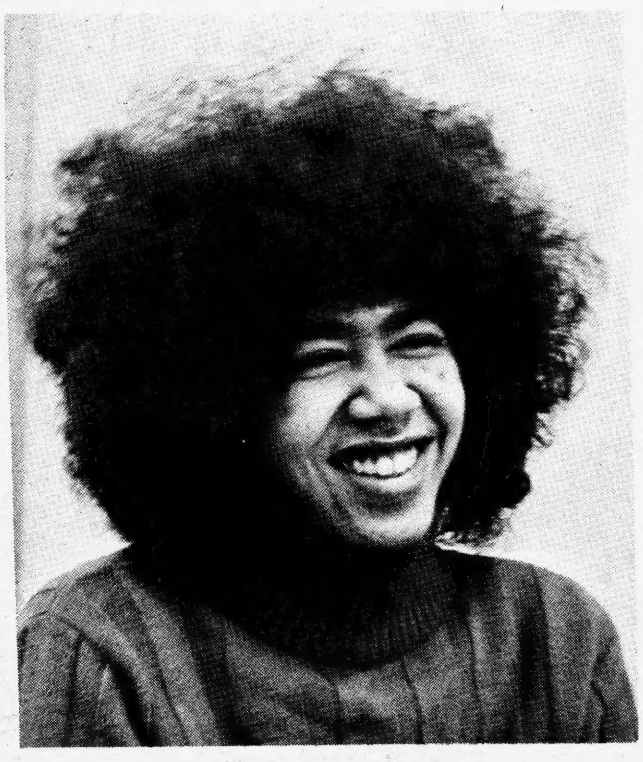
D.A. Markel, sneering, asked for a retrial.

The two Panthers were charged with conspiracy in the kidnap-murder of another party member, Alex Raxley. The chief witness against them had been George Sams, the admitted killer of Raxley and a long-time mental patient.

After considering the two sets of motions--dismissal or retrial--Judge Mulvey re-entered the courtroom. He praised the job that Markel had done, but he then granted the defense motion for acquittal on the grounds that, yes, it would be impossible to pick an unbiased jury after the tons of newspront and hours of television that blared headlines about the trial.

After the trial a young white woman juror expressed her feelings about the case. She said she presumed their innocence from the start, but the key point was when State's Attorney Marle said he was finished presenting the prosecution case. "When he said 'the state rests its case' I couldn't be-'lieve it. I said, 'he must be kidding.' When we got back to the jury room, I said to Bob [the jury foreman] 'well, now we can go home.' They didn't have a case."

Ericka Huggins, 23 years old, a widow with a baby, who spent two yea and three days in jail, walked out a free woman. Kisses, sobs, hugs and cheers greeted her. As she came to the doorstep of the courthouse she turned and said, "Idon't want to go without Bobby."



Bobby Seale, in jail since August, 1969, wisked off the street in California, shuttled from jail in California to Chicago to New Haven, waited back in his cell for motions to set bail for his four year contempt sentence in the Chicago Conspiracy trial. A few days later he was released on $25,000 bond.

Eric[illegible]

Ericka and Bobby are on the streets again, a great victory for the people. But the struggle has just begun. The jails are literally overflowing with people who, unlike Bobby and Ericka, will never benefit from adequate legal counsel or unbiased jury, much less international publicity and support. For example, brother Lonnie McLucas was the first of the New Haven 9 to be tried; he was found guilty of conspiracy to murder and has started his sentence, the maximum, of 15 years.

There are still six more people in New Haven to go on trial for similar charges. They need the same kind of support we gave Ericka and Bobby.

FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS
SMASH THE STATE

N.Y. PANTHER 21

The Panther 21 (eight were never found or were later seperated because of age or illness) were charged with conspiricy to bomb various department stores, police and railroad stations and the N.Y. Botanical Gardens. But what the trial really was about was expressed by defense attorney Robert Bloom in his summation: "This case is really about the conflict between the fources represented here in the courtroom. Is is a coincidence that the defendants are all black, young, dedicated to eliminating the evil that has existed in this country for 400 years? ... The background of this case is beyond the indictment...racism. Are these criminals, or people dedicated to a goal, who joined the Panther Party to organize black people, who said' NO MORE! No more genocide, no more bad schools, poverty, welfare, mistreatment, injustice.' Joan is refered to a a 'girl'; Lumumba instead of Mr. Shakur; Detective McKaddo called Sgt. Abraham a black sargent. That is what this country has come to be. That is what we are here to judge."

After the defense lawyers finished, Afeni Shakur, now eight monthes pregnant, stood up nervously to add a brief plea to the jury: "Let history record that you as a jury would not kneel to the outrageous bidding of the state. Justify our faith in you...All we ask is that you judge us fairly...that's all I have to say."

The jurors especially disliked Judge Murtagh. " Some of the jourers were so angry about the judges bias,"Said James Gary, a black postal worker, "they wanted to come out of the jury box and say 'you're biased...this is it,we're gonna acquit.' One guy went completely wild. They had to hold him back. They told him wait,don't blow your cool--the only way to get at him is in the deliberations."

Charles Bower, a black social worker, said, "How can he,Murtagh, realize how black people feel about the american system of justice, until he wakes up with a rat in his bed?" He wanted to somehow bring in a conviction or indictment against Gene Roberts, Ralph White and Carlos Atwood, the three undercover cops involved in the case.

For almost eight monthes 13 members of the New York Black Panthers were on trial, each facing a possible 175 years imprisonment. The State spent two million dollars and called 65 witnesses for the prosecution. Nevertheless it took the jury only 90 minutes to acquit the defendants on a total of 156 charges.

The jurers didn't accept the "conspiricy" and the panther 21 are FREE(though five are still in jail over other charges). Does this prove the system works? Stephen Chaberskie, a juror, said"It dosn't mean a black man can get a fair trial. It means a jury will acquit when there is lack of evidence."(sometimes)

EARTH NEWS

AP DISPATCH, May 26, 1971: "...The attack on allied troops providing security for American bulldozers uprooting the Boi Loi woods 23 miles northwest of Saigon came about 3:00 am.

"...U.S. army engineers on heavy duty bulldozers leveled nearly 10,000 acres since April 1 to deprive the enemy of hideouts and storage depots.

Ecological damage in Vietnam is not an accident. It is not the result of a few careless "excesses" in an otherwise ordinary war. It is the result of a planned program of death for large groups of people and a whole countryside. The theory is: if the guerilla hides in the trees, eliminate the trees.

The American Legion Magazine, February, 1970: "...Another bit of our planning created the Land Clearing Forces, who simply eliminate the jungle where necessary. One of their main duties is to take away the cover for snipers and ambushers along much-used roads. "We try to push the cover back from 100 feet to 350 yards," says one officer.

On an average day, the 168th La Land Clearing Force can clear 300 acres of jungle, and it has cleared 600 acres in a day. Typical of Army Engineers or Seabees in the field, the men who handle the equipment are a rough-and-ready bunch who care more for their work than neat clothes or clean shaves. They manhandle huge Rome plows, named for Rome, Ga., where they were first built. Their huge blades have razor-sharp edges to slice the jungle close to the ground. At the left end is a steel spike, called a stinger, that can split or weaken trees up to four feet in diameter. The plows--after they clear a 500-yard headquarters area--line up shoulder-to-shoulder and lumber forth to crunch all in their path--like a row of grain combines harvesting a wheat field."

NIGHT SOIL (SHIT) & CHINESE HERBS

Have you been down to the Father of Waters lately? If the truth be known, it is full of shit.

In China, much of the shit is converted directly into fertilizer and used to make a very rich growing medium called "night soil."

Medicine in China is also somewhat organic, in that the scientists make full use of traditional Chinese herb medicine.

Dr. Arthur Galston will give an informal talk with slides on these and other matters relating to science, medicine, and agriculture as it is taught and practiced in the People's Republic of China and in North Vietnam.

Dr. Galston, a professor of biology at Yale, was recently in Hanoi and China. He visited working collectives as well as schools.

Dr. Galston was also a member of the team of scientists from the United States who went to South Vietnam to investigate defoliation.

To be certain that all interested organic gardeners, musicians, T-Party members, Communists, herbologists, and FBI employees may attend this event, it has been scheduled for a Sunday morning.

Piper Film Club

Halloween 1970... The piper Film Club opened its doors, and every weekend since then has been showing in films to freaks-- fantasy freaks, science fiction freaks, Reeses Peanut Butter freaks, comedy and camp freaks, and just plain stoned freaks.

Last fall Piper revived the "serial" form by showing the original Flash Gordon serial (one chapter a week). Proving very popular. they ran Bela Lugosi's "Phantom Creeps" this winter, and this fall will be showing all 12 chapters of the rare "Captain Marvel" serial. Also, whenever time permits, they play a short so that the Piper member gets a full program (short, serial, and feature) for their buck. There are so many good short films that Piper inaugurated their "Short Flix Programs" -- two hours of 10 to 15 different shorts (Fields, Betty Boop, TV clips; you name it)-- that have proved so popular that they usually have one Short Flix program weekend every month.

The Piper is run by two longtime film freaks; Tim Heyman and Harley Toberman. They dig what they are doing, and dig the people. "The midnight shows are best--everybody's ripped--acouple of times we've shown films till four am to these ridiculous midnight crowds".

They are comfortable in their cozy storefront at 2909 Nicollet, and are proud of their unique Cinemascope screen. But landlord pressures and turn-away crowds are forcing the Piper to look for a new and bigger location. Meanwhile they will continue at the Nicollet location, and plan to announce their grand re-opening by having a night of free films to everyone under the stars at Loring Park. Piper doesn't want to move that badly, but since they must, they "might as well go all out".

Shows are on: Fri and Sat 8,10, midnite
Sunday from 7:30 to 9:30.

FESTIVALS ARE COMING!

Midway Stadium in St. Paul, will be the site of a one day rock fest Saturday June 26th.The fest will begin at noon and go till 9:pm.

The Band, John Sebastian, Delaney and Bonnie, the Butterfield Blues Band, Crow, and Muddy Waters will all be playing.

The one hundred foot long stage (which will cut down the waiting time) will be in center field, and people will be able to sit in the field or bleachers.

Tickets are now being sold for $6. (six dollars for six groups) until June 15th, when the ticket price will go to $7.. Tickets will be $8. at the door. It'd be best to get your spare change together soon.

As a security force there will be 200 ushers and about a hundred police and highway patrol. Rumor has it that as far as feeding your head is concerned things will not be uptight. That's only rumor mind you.

HELP from Peoria, Ill. will be on hand with medical facilities.

If this festival makes out O.K. these same folk (Beacom Assts.) plan to put on two more this summer. One in July, one in August.

SUNNY SKIES AND STARRY NIGHTS ON A PRIVATE ISLAND. TO PUT YOUR HEAD IN THE RIGHT PLACE FOR CELEBRATION PLEASE READ THOREAU'S WALDEN A FEW DAYS BEFORE YOU DEPART. IF YOU CAN'T GET INTO THOREAU, YOU WON'T LIKE CELEBRATION.

TICKET INFORMATION:

Celebration attendance will be limited to 60,000 persons due to requirements of local authorities. A Mississippi River island site was selected because of the historic role of the region in developing blues and jazz music and in order to assure authorities that attendance would be positively controlled. Commercial transportation to Celebration Island is not available. Access is by our private River ferry boats only. Admission tickets will be required to board ferry boats and swapped for a special badge with a polaroid photo which will be made for you as you arrive on the island. The photo badge must be with you at all times on the island. Four hundred yards of water, a swift and powerful current, a world famous undertow, and patrolling speedboats, will combine to insure that no swimmers or boaters will reach the island site to overcrowd the site and tax sanitation facilities. Eight day tickets (including ferry boats and badge) cost $28.00. Three day (June 26th-28th) tickets are $20.00. We do not recommend them because much of the program will be missed. All ticket buyers will receive an information kit which will provide driving instructions to the boat landings and information on facilities available on the island. Money will be refunded for all ticket orders arriving after Celebration is sold out. Positively no tickets sold after June 18th. Brought to you by many of the same people who helped bring you the Atlanta International Pop Festival last July, the New Orleans Pop Festival, and the Toronto Rock and Roll Revival . . . People who feel that outdoor vacations can be something excitingly different than they have ever been before. In Atlanta last July 4th we surprised you with Grand Funk Railroad, Poco and Rare Earth. At New Orleans the year before we surprised you with the Jefferson Airplane. In Toronto it was John Lennon and the Plastic Ono Band. All of these acts were unadvertised as it is our custom to give people more than we promise. We have a few dynamite surprises up our sleeves for Celebration too. Keep the faith and dig a different kind of vacation . . . A week in the country at the time of the Solstice . . . Camping in the woods and playing in fields of clover with your brothers . . . Eight magical days . . . A Celebration of Life!

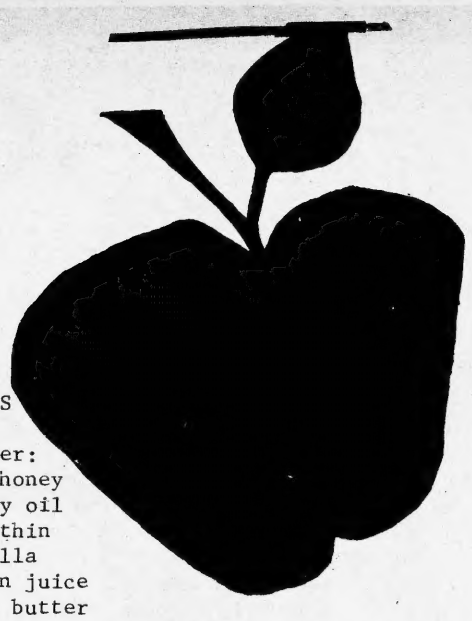
TEN TALENTS A GOOD COOK



North Country Coop has just received 100 copies of a wonderfully complete vegetarian cookbook titled TEN TALENTS-A GOOD COOK. It is written by Dr. Frank Hurd and his wife Rosalie. He is a long time vegetarian who is also a Seventh Day Adventists. He has been a practicing chiropractor and is now along with his family, a producer of a five breakfast (grain, nut, and dried fruit) mix. Dr. Hurd is also available for lectures on nutrition.

Rosalie Hurd is a former teacher of Home Economics, director of a school cafeteria and instructor of a cooking class. She is also the cook of the family. They describe their book as "A natural foods cookbook and complete health manual. Vegetarian recipies containing nuts, fruits, grains, seeds, herbs, and other natural and raw foods-compiled without the use of dairy products, harmful leavenings, and refined sugars." A small section is included using some milk and eggs for those on a transitional diet.

TEN TALENTS cookbood is a carefully done book with everything explained simply and completely. In using the book we have made substitutions in many of the recipes and found them easy to work with and around. I would especially recommend this book to the beginning vegetarian.

By the way, the Hurd family has just recently moved to Chisholm, Minnesota, from Michigan, so we will be seeing more of them. The book is priced at $6.60, but is well worth it. Get 'em now at North Country Coop or send $8.00 to the publishers, DR. and Mrs. Frank J. Hurd, Box 86A-RR#1, Chisholm, Minn., 55719. The following two recipes are a sam;le of what is to be found in the cookbook.
